

Occupational Health, Safety and Hygiene Formative Assessment

Assessment Compiler:

Assessor:

Moderator:

This is a core unit, mandatory and compulsory

During your training, you are required to complete a number of activities within each Lesson in your manual. You need to complete these activities and attach the evidence of each in this section of your POE.

Formative class activity

Please neatly write all answers on line paper. Once completed please file, this will form part of your portfolio of evidence.

Health and safety

Section 1

Question 1

1. List 5 ways you can reduce risk to health and safety in your work place.
2. Procedures to be achieved in your work place. Explain nail tech / beauty therapist health and safety include procedures to be followed and legal responsibilities.
3. List four legal Acts with a short definition of each one.
4. Under the Electricity at Work Regulations 1989 Name the steps that should be followed when an accident happens

First Aid

Question 2

1. what does the first aid regulation 1981 state
2. list four first aid procedures you think is essential to know.
3. name eight items you can find in a first aid box
4. explain disposable waste
5. how should hazardous waste and clinical waste be disposed of?
6. List five points from The Fire Precautions (Workplace) Regulations 1997
7. Name the three insurance you learned about in your manual?

Question 3

Personal Hygiene

1. List the general rules for employees concerning personal hygiene
2. What is the beauty therapists code of ethics?

Question 4

Hygiene in the work place

1. Discuss why effective hygiene is necessary for the salon to prevent cross-infection and secondary infection.
2. In a table format show the difference between sterilization and disinfection.
3. Each workplace should have its own workplace policy identifying hygiene rules. Describe the one mentioned in your your manual.